Department Highlights

The Department of Spanish offers a Major, a Minor, and a Professional Certificate in Spanish. Many UNT students also do a double major in Spanish and another field such as business, music, biology and journalism.

At the basic and intermediate levels, students master all Spanish language skills through oral & written practice and online activities. Advanced students take are able to choosing from a variety of courses in Hispanic literature, cultures, professions, civilization, and cinema to fulfill requirements and electives.

There are also many opportunities to Study Abroad in Spanish-speaking countries to earn foreign language credit while travelling and learning in places like Peru or Spain.

UNT Spanish graduates have gone on to become secondary school teachers and work in various businesses, as well as continue on to graduate school and other professions.
