

Psychology (PSYC)

The Department of Psychology provides an education in the scientific basis of psychological knowledge and exposes students to the many ways that knowledge is applied in everyday life. The scientific study of feeling, thinking, and behavior is relevant for a very broad range of professions.

Enhance your marketable skills through:

- A minor or certificate
- Developing quantitative analysis skills
- Research experience
- Volunteering & internships
- Study Abroad
- Participation in student organizations
- Attend career and academic workshops
- Part-time job

Popular Alumni Career Fields:

- Mental Health
- Law
- Human Resources
- Criminal Justice
- Human Services
- Health Care
- Marketing
- Non-Profit
- Teaching
- Management
- Government
- Research

Complementary Minors & Certificates

- Marketing
- Management
- Addiction Studies
- Criminal Justice
- Rehabilitation Studies
- Social Services
- Applied Gerontology
- Human Development & Family Studies
- Counseling
- Alternative Dispute Resolution
- Language
- Behavior Analysis
- Legal Studies Certificate
- Peace Studies Certificate

Professional Organization:

Psi Chi

Faculty Advisor: Dr. Terry Davis

Terry.Davis2@unt.edu