

Public Policy Regional Planning Social Services Legislative, Executive, or Judicial Services

General Services Program Administration

City or Town Management

Law Enforcement

Local & State

Government

Information/Library Services,

Admissions, Financial Aid

Teaching, Administration

Student Support Services, Advising, Development,

Student Affairs, Alumni Affairs

Community Education

Education

NonProfit

Administration Management

Public Relations Program Coordination

Fund Raising/Development

Grant Writing Writing/Editing

Volunteer Coordination Community Education

All of the above listed are careers one may pursue with a History degree. Jobs may require additional training, education, or certification.

Research Intelligence Foreign Service

Law Enforcement General Services

Legislative, Executive, or Judicial Services

Program Administration

Public Policy

Federal Government

HISTORY

Law

Prosecution Defense

Contractual Corporate

Government

Non Profit or Public Interest

Mediation Law Assistance Sales Management

Office Administration Writing/Editing

Human Resources Public Relations

Training and Development

Editing Reporting

Circulation Sales

Publishing Electronic Media

News Programming

Elected or Appointed Leadership

Campaign Management

Staff Administration

Political Advising

Special Interest Advocacy

Lobbying

Curatorial & Archival Mgmt. -Library Science

Politics

Business &

Media

Functions include:

Acquisition Preservation Arrangement Describing

Cataloguing/Categorizing Exhibition/Installation

Analyzing Authenticating Research

Maintaining Records

Library Administration

Education