

WHAT'S YOUR MAJOR?

NAME: Ryan

MAJOR: Communication Studies with minor in Professional Selling

CLASSIFICATION: Junior

TELL THE STORY OF HOW YOU FOUND THIS MAJOR:

Being both a people person and indecisive, I selected the communications major to master my grasp of persuasive language, which I would utilize in the field of business. After a thorough selection process, I was accepted into the professional selling cohort, hence the minor.

WHAT TIPS DO YOU HAVE FOR FIRST-YEAR STUDENTS:

- Set two alarms, the beds are dangerously comfortable and you will fall back asleep.
- Talk to everyone you meet, even if it's just a simple hello, nobody's going to turn down a friendly conversation. They're just as nervous as you.
- Campus may seem difficult to navigate at first, but it's just one big square and after a month or so, you'll know it like the back of your hand.
- Take the busses, you can ride them for free and you never know what exciting place you might end up.
- Befriend everyone you meet.
