

Chaplaincy: Military/Institutional

Vocation as Monk or Nun

Mission Work: Churches, Community, Educational,
Medical, Evangelism

Local Ministries: Youth, Adult, Leisure, Counseling/
Recovery, Food Bank/Emergency

Music-Oriented Ministries

Religious Camp Administration

Religion
Affiliated Areas

Case Management

Counseling Rehabilitation

Administration Vocational Training

Volunteer Services Programming

Advocacy Crisis Services

Social Services

Church-based Organizing/Community Development

Fundraising Grant Writing

Education

Teaching Research

Student Affairs Administration

Multicultural Programming

Library/Information Science

Programs/Study Abroad Administration

Campus Ministry

Human Resources

Sales Management

Office Administration

Underwriting & Claims Management

Training and Development

Writing/Editing

Entrepreneurship

Business

Humanitarian Services Policy Development

Economic/Community Development

Disaster/Disease Relief

Program Administration

Volunteer Coordination

Peace Keeping or Peacebuilding

Conflict Resolution/Management

Diplomacy/Faith Based Diplomacy

Public Service: Foreign Affairs International Security

International Law

International Areas

Advertising

Commercial Art

Website Design

Event Planning

Museum Work: Curatorship

Exhibition Design

Arts

Law

Prosecution Defense

Contractual Corporate

Nonprofit or Public Interest

Government

Mediation Law Assistance

Other Specialities

RELIGION

COMMUNICATIONS

Writing Editing

Publishing

Advertising

Public Relations

Television/Film

All of the above listed are careers one may pursue with a Philosophy degree. Jobs may require additional training, education, or certification.