The International Studies program offers a B.A. in International studies with concentrations in International Security & Diplomacy, International Business & Economics, International Development & Humanitarian Affairs, Regional Studies, and Peace Studies. This degree provides you with an understanding of the political and historical backgrounds of different regions of the world, but also their economic, social, and cultural variances.

Enhance your marketable skills through:

- A minor in a World Language
- Study Abroad
- Internship(s)
- Campus Cultural events
- Participation in student organizations
- Career & Academic workshops
- Part-time job

Popular Alumni Career Fields:

- Law
- Federal Government
- Teaching English as a Second Language
- Peace Corps
- U.S. State Department
- U.S. Department of Energy
- Foreign Service
- U.S. Department of Homeland Security
- City of San Antonio Office of Emergency Management

Complementary Minors & Certificates:

- Anthropology
- Business Foundations
- Emergency Management
- Geography
- History
- Leadership of Community & Nonprofit Organizations
- Philosophy
- Public Administration
- World Languages
- Global Perspectives Certificate
- Economic Geography Certificate
- Peace Corps Prep Certificate
- Legal Studies Certificate

Professional Organization:

Sigma Iota Rho Honor Society

Faculty Advisor:
Dr. Brent Richards

Brent.Richards@unt.edu