

Sociology (SOCI)

The Sociology program offers a B.A. and B.S. degree in Sociology. This degree provides you with a comprehensive understanding of social theory and research methods. It also prepares you for numerous careers in human services and corporations or for an entry-level research job as an interviewer or statistician.

Enhance your marketable skills through:

- Undergraduate Research
- Study Abroad
- Internship(s)
- Participation in student organizations
- Career & Academic workshops
- Part-time job

Popular Alumni Career Fields:

- Law
- Counseling & Human Services
- Law Enforcement & Criminal Justice
- Education
- Government
- Urban/City Planning
- Social Science Research
- Human Resources
- Marketing
- Non-Profit organizations

Complementary Minors & Certificates

- Anthropology
- Counseling
- Criminal Justice
- Emergency Management
- Geography
- Health Promotion
- Human Services
- Leadership of Community & Nonprofit Organizations
- Management
- Marketing
- Psychology
- Statistics
- World Languages

Student & Professional Organizations:

Alpha Kappa Delta Honor Society
The Sociology Club

Faculty Advisor:
Dr. Helen Potts

Helen.Potts@unt.edu